

THE EDMONTON PARTY WELL ENTERTAINED

Winnipeg Board of Trade and Business Men Extend all Courtesies--Council Inspects Bell Telephone System

Winnipeg, Jan. 31.—The Edmonton excursionists are being splendidly entertained here. The party were met at the train by the board of trade and a large delegation of business men and last night attended the theatre in a body. The Edmonton council spent yesterday examining the Bell Telephone system and a committee of four have been selected to go to Chicago at the expense of the Chicago Automatic Telephone Co. to examine their system. Winnipeg wholesalers are entertaining the visitors liberally. The board of trade yesterday escorted the party on a tour of inspection of the city water works, fire department and agricultural college. The newspaper men are also in evidence and lengthy interviews are published in the press. The weather has turned suddenly cold.

Winnipeg, Jan. 31.—That the delegation which came from Edmonton is thoroughly representative of the west is indicated by the length of time they have been in the country. One of the interesting incidents of the trip was a census taken to determine the length of time each had spent in the country. In the car, Dalmeny there were six people and the average length of their period of residence in the West was seventeen years and four months. In the Saskatchewan were thirty-six with an average western residence of eighteen years and in the Battledore were thirty-six with an average residence of twenty years.

Wm. Mackenzie, president of the C. N. R. arrived last evening from Edmonton. He expresses himself much pleased with the progress noted at Edmonton, both in railway and commercial circles.

Next season the construction of the line to Athabasca Landing will be pushed forward, tapping the oil fields of Alberta.

J. P. Fowler of Wetaakiwin, who came to the city with the Edmonton party said "Those Edmonton fellows may get the idea that they are the whole thing, but I tell you Wetaakiwin will be hot after them some day. Edmonton is not the only place that is going ahead."

The Edmonton party claim that the dip in temperature strikes them hard, as they have had a very mild winter in Edmonton.

CALGARY MAY HAVE STREET RAILWAY

Calgary, January 30.—The Calgary street Railway Company which has a charter to build a railway in Calgary but with the consent of the city council has made an offer to the city for building a road. They agree to leave all conditions with the city as to percentage of profits, etc. They suggest that the city might furnish power. The new company is represented by R. B. Bennett.

Calgary has invited the Lethbridge baseball team for a return game which will probably be played here on Thursday.

Messrs Morse and Wainwright Approve Specifications for Winnipeg Quebec Section

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—Messrs. Hayes, Morse and Wainwright were here today and approved of the specifications for tenders for the Winnipeg and Quebec sections of the transcontinental railway. They have yet to get the formal approval of the Grand Trunk Pacific Board and also of the Government. This will take two or three days and until then it will not be possible to issue a call for tenders.

RED DEER ITEMS

Red Deer, Jan. 30.—Supreme court was taken up this morning with charging prisoners and all pleaded not guilty. There are two cases of horse stealing, one of rape and many minor offences. Oie Brobeck has still an air of almost stolid indifference to what is going on, but when asked if guilty or not guilty he shook his head very emphatically.

W. M. Jarvis and wife returned today from a sojourn to the Banff, hot springs.

Red Deer, Alta., Jan. 29.—The Red Deer intermediate hockey team journeyed to Lacombe on Saturday and defeated Lacombe on their own ice by a score of 5 to 4. The game was fast from the very first, three goals being scored in the first twelve minutes. A few minutes afterwards one of the Lacombe men had to be carried off the ice and Smith was put off to even matters up. The game as a whole was a very clean one, there being only three men put on the fence, Tait and Mann being the offenders on the Red Deer side, and Boyd was the Lacombe man penalized. The game fluctuated all through, one side being a goal ahead for a time and then the other.

At five minutes before the game was over the score was four all, when Hewson made a star rush just failing to score and dropping in a heap near the goal with cramps. A man was laid off by Lacombe and the game was finished without another score. It was then agreed to play another five minutes with five men a side. The play was fast and the work heavy, but Mann managed to score for Red Deer in two and a half minutes, thus winning the game. Hewson and Mann scored two goals apiece, and the other was scored by Lew Handford. There were over fifty Red Deer rooters present at the match.

J. Williams, who has been in the Bank of Commerce here for the past nine months, left on Saturday night's train for Calgary, where he will be a member of the staff there.

The curlers arrived home from Edmonton on Saturday, and, judging by the bundles they carried, appeared to have been fairly successful.

R. McCormick who has been up at Slave Lake for the past few months, struck town again last week.

The Red Deer Amateur Dramatic Society are putting on "The Three Hats" at the opera house on the eighth.

C. W. Rowley of the Bank of Commerce, Calgary, returned to that town on Saturday.

The Calgary intermediate hockey team try conclusions with the Red Deer intermediates on Red Deer ice on Wednesday night.

Frank Lehman of the Victoria hotel at Lacombe, is spending a few days with his uncle P. Krause.

Alex. Miles, who has been spending his last few months at the coast, has returned to town.

ROSSLAND COLORS TRAILED IN SLUSH

Strathcona Bunch Went Through the Mountaineers Like Steers Through a Cornfield-- Score 14 to 1

The gang from the Kootenay, who came over here on the understanding that they knew something of the general principles of the hockey game, were so badly beaten by the Strathcona bunch last night that the score got lost in the shuffle, and it would have taken an actuary to keep track of the goals as fast as they were made. The Rossland bunch not only did not play, but they did not try, and if the authorities of the sister town had followed the law of the land literally they would have raided the house and pulled the door keeper for taking money under false pretences. The intimation that the four hits was a mistake to a hockey game made it little better than petty larceny.

Rossland's particular weakness was their goal keeper. Things came his way so fast last night that he apparently could not get done looking back to see where the last one went to before the next one was on top of him. The most reliable authorities place the score at 14 to 1. There were thirteen shots on the Rossland goal, and fourteen scores. The goal tender reached out and got the fourteenth one himself.

Hood also played a great game for Strathcona. Before the game got very far along he got into a funk and would not try to play. However, he was all right, he was all in. The rest of the gang spent most of their time loafing and only showed two or three streaks of playing during the game.

On the Strathcona team, Hampton, McArthur and Ritchie did all the scoring. Right from the jump McArthur made a goal and Hampton scored two more within the next five minutes, all of which would have been kept out by a goal keeper. Then Crawford and Hood found an easy place and made one of their combinations each, scoring the only goal that the Rossland gang has to their credit since they came across the range. The one goal seemed to inspire the mountaineers and they commenced to ginger up and get into the game. For the next twenty minutes it was very good hockey, but at the end of a fast season of pretty work by both teams Ritchie scored again on a dinkie little shot and just before time McArthur scored another making the score five to one in the first half. The twenty minutes that it took Ritchie to get his goal was the only playing of the evening.

If the second half it was one long procession of Strathcona, and they played them in as fast as they had a mind to. There were either nine or ten goals made in the second half, but in a game of that kind, one goal is neither here nor there. At any rate Strathcona scored all the goals that decency would permit.

The Rosslanders will play again in Strathcona this evening, but they will do so with a chance of winning, as Harold Edward Grady of the Edmonton team is going to play goal for them instead of the child wonder whom they brought with them, from the mines.

This arrangement was suggested last night, and Strathcona was found willing on condition that they be allowed to supply the visitors with a goal tender from their own team for Thursday evening, when they play on this side of the river again.

POLICEMAN ARRIVES FROM HIRSCHSEL ISLAND

Corporal Munro Reached the City Yesterday From the Far Northerly Post--Whalers Will Suffer From Lack of Food

Corporal Munro arrived down from Lesser Slave Lake yesterday, accompanied by Mr. Desjardins, who is fur trading there.

Corporal Munro spent the last two years and a half at Hirschsel Island, at the mouth of the Mackenzie River, and is familiar with the conditions confronting the whalers who are frozen in at Point Barrow this winter and for whose safety a great deal of uneasiness is felt.

Corporal Munro left Hirschsel Island in July for Edmonton, and consequently is not posted as to their present situation, but he says that there were four ships which wintered in the north last winter, the Bowhead, and Karluk at Hirschsel Island, and the Herman and Bonanza at Point Barrow.

Besides these there were eight other ships which came in last summer while he was there and which intended to get out last fall, but of which only two managed to reach the Pacific. The others are all frozen in and will have a very bad time of it this winter, with the possibility that a large number of the whalers will lose their lives through starvation. The four boats which wintered in there last winter were short of supplies when he left the north, and the others, having only intended to stay the summer, will have none too much for themselves. They are all at Point Barrow, 300 miles west of the Mackenzie, where they will not be able to get any supplies.

piles of fresh meat to amount to anything and the outlook is not by any means cheerful. Corporal Munro says that it would be impossible to reach them with supplies in time to be of any use, although a party of two or three might work their way in light from Dawson or Nome or some other northern point. They might be reached from Hirschsel Island, but as there are 400 men and two women altogether in the crews of the ships that are frozen bound, there would not be enough supplies at Hirschsel Island to last them a week.

The summer season in those waters is very short, giving the whalers only about six weeks to work on between the time that they must come in and go out again, and there is always every winter some ships that are compelled to winter at Hirschsel Island. In 1897 there were some sixteen ships frozen in at Point Barrow, having been caught on their way to the Pacific, just as they were this winter, and there was terrible mortality among the crews that winter, supplies running short and scurvy breaking out among the men.

PONOKA NEWS

Ponoka, Jan. 27.—Edwards Brothers have rented the fine brick store built by L. B. Matusch, on Railway street, and are busy removing their stock.
It is without doubt the finest store in town, being replete with all conveniences.

The farmers' association has entered into active business, and besides being well patronized with grain, are shipping hogs and other produce.

A number of Scots visited Lacombe Thursday evening to celebrate Burns anniversary, and have nothing but praise to bestow upon their Lacombe brethren for the successful entertainment provided.

Regret is being experienced on all sides on account of the removal of the Northwest Lumber Co. from the town.
Their saw mills have been in operation for about five years and during that time have added to the upbuilding of the town to a large extent. During the summer months alone, they employed from eighty to one hundred hands, and now that the works are about to be removed, several families will be compelled to seek other locations. The reasons which have necessitated the step is owing to the want of sufficient water in the Battle River, which has handicapped the output very much. They are to locate on their timber lands at Pigeon Lake, where no doubt many of the old employees will accompany them.

Mr. C. W. Thorne, of Rosnoke, Ind., arrived today to join her husband, who has taken up land in the Chester-wood district.

There is no abatement in the festive season and several well-known farmers have been entertaining large companies at their homes in the vicinity, during the past week. Especially have the young people in town found favor and almost every night crowded sleigh loads could be seen wending their way to the place of meeting.

HEART-RENDING SIGHT

When the wrecked steamer Valencia broke up at noon on Wednesday after being on the rocks at Kinsaw point since shortly after midnight the previous day, three eye witnesses stood fifty yards away and watched forty to fifty persons, both men and women, who were clinging to the rigging, some lashed, swept to death in one great engulfing wave. Lineman Lodge, who in company with D. Martin, also of Cloose, and W. T. Daykin, lightkeeper of Carmanah point, went to the wreck by the land trail on Tuesday afternoon soon after lightkeeper L. Patterson reported the shipwreck after the survivors in the boatwain's boat had struggled in over the rocks to his station, telegraphed today to Cape Beale that they had seen the awful sight of every soul on board the wreck being swept to death without being able to do anything to save them. The party with ropes and supplies fastened to their backs struggled over the arduous trail by night, suffering severely, but ever pressing on with the hope of rendering assistance and arrived at the wreck on Wednesday morning.

On reaching the top of a bluff the wreck was seen below partially submerged, and only fifteen yards from the face of the bluff. Below them, huddled on the still remaining deck-houses, only a portion of which were above the heavily rolling sea which then swept with great force over the wreck and broke against the cliff, were huddled many survivors and they plainly saw a large number of people clinging to the rigging. It was an awful disappointment to these people clinging to the rigging when they found the would-be rescuers were unable to aid them. When the party first showed themselves at the top of the cliff, the passengers began to cheer wildly, they thought rescue was at hand, that was evident. Then the realization soon came that assistance could not reach them. The men ashore were unable to do anything and they clung in despair to the rigging, some shrieking, the sound being heard faintly through the noise of the storm and roaring of the breaking surf at the face of the cliff.

Meanwhile the men ashore watched their hearts torn because of their inability to do anything to save those who were seen to perish. The end came at twelve o'clock, when one huge roller swept in and crushed everything to pieces. When the ebb came only the stump of a mast and some spars were seen above water, and the debris was scattered for some distance; it scattered wreckage; and the wave carried away the floats, bodies and all.

The steamer Salvor was at Bamfield when the Indians and the living men and the dead were swept ashore from this raft, and was ordered to proceed to Toquart to pick up the men. It was while on her return to Bamfield with the three men taken there—Chief Cook Hancock and Fireman Max Stanlar and George Long—that the Salvor found thereafter a raft with a ghastly company on board. It was thought there were more survivors on it, but when it was picked up the three men seen were shown to be dead. The bodies were taken on board the Salvor and were identified as those of John Wallace, Walter, R. M. Nelson, third assistant engineer, and an American Marine of U.S.S. Concord, name unknown.

The tale the survivor tells is that soundings of 190 fathoms were first obtained by the men with the lead lines, and many other soundings were made before the one in which thirty fathoms was secured, which was taken just before the steamer struck. The officers thought they were in the vicinity of Cape Flattery, instead of being close to Cape Beale. An immediate panic took place among the officers and crew, said the survivor, according to a telegram sent tonight from Bamfield, and there seemed to be no discipline among them. The stewards, however, worked with utmost coolness, and got the passengers on the deck. Lifesboat No. 2 was the first to be lowered. This was put over the starboard side, fifteen people were placed on board. It kept afloat until reaching the breakers, where it capsized. Seven of the fifteen got ashore by clinging to floating oars and pieces of wreckage. Lifesboat No. 5, which was the second one, put over with eight people on board, was immediately struck by a breaker and capsized, though a moment later a second wave struck the boat and righted it. A woman and a baby were in the boat, and Messrs. Hunter and Ritchey managed to get back into it. Then another wave struck the boat and drove it toward the beach, where it struck a rock and overturned, throwing out the occupants, of whom Hunter and Ritchey alone were washed ashore.

The nine survivors lay on the rocks until daylight. Then they climbed the bluff and saw the telegraph line. They followed the lead of the wire through the bush until they reached the telegraph hut at Darling Creek. There were telephones in the hut, and, using these, they advised Lightkeeper Patterson of Cape Beale, of the disaster and of their predicament. The unfortunate men were knocked about a good deal. One had his ankle sprained, and another, a boy, had a crushed finger. At the telegraph hut they found a few mouldy buns, which had evidently been left by the Lineman on his last visit, and lived on these on Tuesday and Wednesday, when the telegraph party reached them from Bamfield with some provisions.

A CRITIC OF EDMONTON

Medicine Hat News.—Edmonton is rejoicing in striking gas at a depth of 1450 feet. The pressure, however, is only 280 lbs. to the square inch and therefore is of little use for industrial purposes. As a matter of fact our deep well is only 1000 feet down and we had a pressure equal to that at Edmonton at 650 feet. The gas area of course, may reach as far north as the Capital, but when the pressure is only 280 pounds at 1450 feet it seems a little premature to claim a "strike." While Medicine Hat is not desirous of withholding from Edmonton what is her just due, still we don't like to see the Northerners trading on the good name which the gas has given us, and at least, a more substantial evidence of gas has been obtained than that which is indicated by a 280 pound pressure.

The Medicine Hat News need not be worried, Edmonton has neither the need nor the desire to trade on the reputation of Medicine Hat or any other town. Edmonton's hope is that Medicine Hat may receive all the benefits which may be legitimately anticipated from her resources of natural gas, but it is not part of Edmonton's program to allow Medicine Hat to pose as the only possessor of such resources.

THE AWAKENING

That Calgary is awakening to her need of railway competition and also to a knowledge of the forces and the men in that city who stand for the maintenance of C. P. R. monopoly is shown by the following editorial which appeared in the Herald of Saturday last:

"It is unfortunate that there should be any difference of opinion as to where the Calgary board of trade stands on the great question of railroad competition. In truth there is no shadow of doubt that Calgary is practically unanimous in favor of the broadest possible competition in transportation matters, and the board of trade composed of the most progressive business men of the city. They reflect, accurately the sentiment of the community on this vital problem.

"That two constructions can be put upon the recorded acts of the board at the annual meeting with reference to the organization's desire to have the Hill system extended to Calgary is lamentable. No accurate review of the circumstances surrounding the resolutions introduced, will leave a particle of doubt that the board of trade at its annual meeting did favor an expression favorable to the extension of the Hill system to Calgary, and that the members today seriously resent the suggestion that they took any action not wholly consistent with that theory.

"The Winnipeg Free Press published a despatch from Calgary this day following the annual convention of the board of trade, in which it was declared that a resolution to invite J. J. Hill to connect Calgary with his system was defeated. A few days later a Lethbridge paper printed the item under the head, 'Calgary Knocks Hill!'

"This is grossly unfair to Calgary, unfair to the members of the board of trade, and unfair to the outside public.

"Here is what really happened: A resolution was offered that the board send a delegation to St. Paul, to see Mr. Hill and urge him to extend the Great Northern to Calgary. R. J. Hutchings, the retiring president, explained that in view of the fact that two members of the board had just returned from St. Paul where an extensive review of the situation was gone over with Mr. Hill, he did not believe it was worth while to go to the expense of sending another delegation there.

"There was considerable discussion on both sides, BUT NOT ONE WORD HOSTILE TO THE IDEA OF SECURING THE HILL SYSTEM WAS SPOKEN EXCEPT BY THE SOLICITOR OF THE C. P. R. HIS POSITION DID NOT CREATE ANY SURPRISE, NOR DID HIS ARGUMENTS INVITE SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.

"At this point a statement was made that Mr. Lewis Hill, who is today the real manager of the Hill system, was shortly to be in the west and it was urged that he might be induced to come to Calgary. Thereupon Aid.

Jones, upon this allusion, moved as an amendment that the board of trade invite Mr. Hill to come to Calgary as the guest of the organization. This was carried.

"Is there a sane man in Calgary who believes that if the original motion had been put it would not have been carried, absolutely without a dissenting vote except that of the one man on the floor who had expressed hostility to Hill?"

"This is the situation. Aid. Jones who introduced the amendment, is one of the most enthusiastic advocates of Hill driving his line into Calgary there is in the city. Had he for a moment thought that his motion was to be the basis for the bald statement that 'Calgary Knocks Hill!' can it be urged that he would have made it?"

"However, the damage has been done and probably unintentionally at that, and it remains for the board of trade to spread upon its minutes at the next meeting the earnest conviction of that body that Calgary wants the Hill system and any other transportation systems whose managers can be induced to project them into central Alberta.

"It is a false idea that this is disloyalty to the C. P. R. or that it is intended as any reflection upon the policy of the great corporation which has been such a powerful factor in the development of Calgary and the west. That company has nothing to fear from competition. The natural expansion of the country will develop additional traffic and the old line will retain its connections and increase its business while the new systems will secure what they are entitled to by their efforts to have. There is nothing hostile to existing transportation systems of the west in this idea. It is business—the economy of the hour; simply that and nothing more."

THE LADY WON OUT

(Toronto News)

Miss Mabel French, whom the ungallant judges of New Brunswick refused to allow to practice as an attorney, on the ground that she is not a person, is avenged. Kate Smith, being arrested for drunkenness in St. John, pleaded that the by-law which dealt with drunkards did not apply to her, inasmuch as, according to the learned judges of New Brunswick Supreme Court, in the case of Miss Mabel French asking admission as attorney, a woman was not "a person" within the meaning of the Act. Judge Ritchie turned up the by-law, which reads: "Any person who shall be found 'drunk or feigning to be drunk or making any loud bawling, yelling, screaming, singing or shouting in any public, thoroughfare, alley, road or by-road, shall be fined.' That settled it. Women are not persons, and therefore cannot practice law. Women are not persons, and therefore have full permission to bawl yell, scream, shout or sing on the King's highway. If New Brunswick wants to recover its credit with the fair, it will reverse these laws, allow ladies to practice law, and withdraw a liberty which they do not desire.

SUPREME COURT.

Supreme court will open in Edmonton, Monday next, Judge Scott presiding, and there will be a heavy criminal docket to be disposed of. The most important case is the Lilje murder trial, which was up last year but on which the jury disagreed. Young Lemmon, of Port Saskatchewan will be tried for forgery of a check in his uncle's name and Johnstone, of Vermilion, will be tried for arson being accused of having set fire to his lumber pile in order to get the insurance. The other cases, of which there are about a dozen altogether, are for minor offences. The court will probably be in session for two weeks.

FOSTER'S FORECAST

Washington, Jan. 27.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbances to cross continent Jan. 24 to 28, warm wave Jan. 29 to 27, cool wave, Jan. 24 to 32. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about Jan. 29, cross west of Rockies by close of Jan. 29, great central valleys, Jan. 31 to Feb. 2, eastern states Feb. 3. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about Jan. 29, great central valleys, Jan. 31, eastern states Feb. 2. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about Feb. 1, great central valleys Feb. 3, eastern states February 5.

Temperatures of this storm wave will average lower than usual and the first week in February will average colder than usual. Some severely cold weather will come in the first and last weeks of February and March will come in cold. Snows will be quite general north and rains south during the first and last weeks in February, but precipitation will be defec-ient for the month, a drouth month.
A storm wave is the same as a disturbance and consists of six weather features; warm wave, change of wind, cool wave, clouding, threatening clearing.

The middle weeks of February will be warmer than the first and last weeks in the southern states the soil will be in good condition for the early planting of February, but if the drouth continued into March the early crops will suffer. Some very bad weather for live stock may be expected in February and much care will be necessary where the live stock is not well sheltered.

LIKES PEACE RIVER COUNTRY
Winnipeg Free Press: Jas. Moor who was connected with a G. T. P. survey for some months operating in the Peace River country is in the city. The party of whom Mr. Moor was one, was engaged in running a line through the Wapiti pass, which is south of the Peace River pass. Speaking of the experience to a Free Press reporter, Mr. Moor said: "Our headquarters were at Saskatoon lake which is 76 miles west of Dunvegan and for this base we operated westward. It is all a fine country from Dunvegan westward for a hundred miles. There is a good settlement at Spirit River, 15 miles west of Dunvegan, there being there a number of colonists well supplied with stock, etc. The chief crops so far raised have been oats, with not much of that as yet, however, both oats and wheat mature perfectly in the country." From Dunvegan westward along the valley of the Peace the timber lines the river for two miles back, and from this southward extends a strip of prairie country 25 miles wide. South of this again is another strip of timber, the land being rolling but with no rock exposures.

South of this strip of timber again is another stretch of prairie extending down as far as the Big Smoky and west about 75 miles. There is one ranching outfit, consisting of two men and 45 head of cattle at Grand Prairie and they are to bring in a hundred head more in the spring. Grand Prairie will probably be a better ranching than a farming country, the land being rolling, and it is claimed by some, deficient in surface soil. The climate is good, being within range of the chinooks, the frost does not bother there in summer any more than it did in Manitoba in the early days.

"How about the winter?" was asked.

"The climate is mild, there being no snow on the ground when we left there on December 16, and the temperature was mild. There is all kinds of game wandering through the hills and some fur left. Moose caribou and deer are particularly plentiful."

"What do you think of the country in general?"

"I think the Peace River has a good future before it and that it will improve upon acquaintance."

FOUND LARGE COAL SEAM

Sturgeon River Men Discover Eight Foot Seam of Coal

Donald McKinley and C. Carnegie, who in the city yesterday, and brought with them the story of the discovery of eight feet of coal on Mr. McKinley's farm (about eight miles north of Edmonton).

Mr. Carnegie who is a coal miner by trade secured a lease on the McKinley property some time ago and commenced a prospecting shaft there for coal, with the result that he made the discovery last week. The coal is found at a depth of 35 feet, and is overlaid with 10 feet of sandstone. It is a very superior quality of coal and Mr. Carnegie claims that when they get a railroad which is surveyed past their place, they will be able to ship coal into Edmonton in competition with the local product. Mr. Carnegie intends to send a sample to the Canadian Northern with the hope of securing a contract.

WILL INVESTIGATE IRREGULARITIES

Washington, Jan. 30.—Publicity of election contributions and expenditures, and the formation of organizations to promote these purposes in all stages are argued in an address issued tonight by the National Publicity Bill Association.

The address follows: "For the purpose of eliminating by all appropriate methods, the evils resulting from secret contributions and expenditures of large sums of money in elections, a meeting was held here on Jan. 17, 1906. An association was formed to be known as the National Publicity Bill organization, and this address was authorized:

"The secret and corrupt use of money in the election of the chief magistrate of the nation, its legislature and its state and municipal offices is a dangerous menace to the institutions of a free people.

"The profligate use of money for such purposes, enables the consolidated interests by secret contributions to dominate political organizations, depriving the many of their political rights to confer them on the few.

"It is confidently asserted that the first and most important measure of relief is the passage of a national law requiring a disclosure under oath of every contribution of money and every promise of money in national campaigns, and in case of evasions, providing for exposure and punishment substantially set forth in the bill prepared under the auspices of this association.

"This organization desires to promote the formation of similar organizations in every state in order that the proposed national law may be supplemented by state legislation of like character. This movement has the support of leading representative men of the political parties and of organized labor. It concerns the rights and honor of every citizen and the approval and active co-operation of all are earnestly invited to carry this reform to a successful conclusion."

Signal, Perry Belmont, New York, president; Frank Foster, Massachusetts, secretary.

C. N. R. REACHES PRINCE ALBERT

Prince Albert, Sask., Jan. 29.—With the touching of the Central avenue crossing by the steel of the C. N. R. at noon on Friday, Prince Albert was bound to the east by another steel band, giving another outlet for the produce and an inlet for goods. During two or three days previous track laying was suspended while the diamond at the crossing of the C. P. R. about a mile out, was put in, but when this was completed, work commenced on the steel laying and this morning the gang slipped in quietly and unobtrusively without unnecessary noise, and there were only a couple of score of citizens who were aware of the fact and had gone up and witnessed the laying of the last rail. This done, the construction train and crew immediately pulled out to the eastern end of the yards, where they commenced to put in sidings. There are some fifty or sixty men engaged on the work, which is proceeding nicely now, and with ideal weather conditions.

Mayor Bradshaw on behalf of the council and citizens offered a reception to the officials, but owing to unavoidable circumstances the president and the officials will be unable to accept, until early spring, when the regular passenger service will be inaugurated. There is much rejoicing here upon the advent of the new road, as it will materially cheapen freight rates. The first noticeable effect of the C. N. R. entry is a decided drop in rates over the C. P. R. which goes into effect in a couple of days.

CAPTAIN GETS TEN YEARS.

New York, Jan. 27.—Captain William H. Van Schaick, was found guilty of criminal negligence in failing to have fire drills on the steamer General Slocum, which he commanded in June, 1904, when that steamer burned with the loss of over 1,000 lives. He was immediately sentenced to ten years' imprisonment by Judge Thomas, of the United States district court.

SPORTSHOCKEY.

By winning this game on Monday the Edmonton bunch have proved that they are there with the goods, and it is up to the locals at once to get right out and look for greater honors. Winnipeg is a pretty big proposition but they have to begin some time and the right time is now, when they have the team together and in good shape. Possibly a month or a year from now they may not be anything like the aggregation they are to-day. Certainly the team which went down to such inglorious defeat before Strathcona a month ago and the team which played Rossland Monday night would hardly be recognized as coming from the same town, let alone being composed largely of the same players, and while there is room for the team to improve, still more there is also a wide open chance for them to go back.

At present they have anything that Edmonton ever had beaten a Salt Lake block, and it is up to the local promoters of the national pastime to get into the game along with the big ones.

LAC STE ANNE(Correspondence)
Last week J. O. Williamson's team ran away and injured a child of Pierre LaRoque's. The little one has apparently recovered from the effects of the accident.

Cecil Armstrong returned last week from Michaelson's ranch on the Paddle. He reports the new trail by way of Lac Ste. Anne to be in excellent condition. Mr. Michaelson has a very excellent location for his ranch and his splendid herds of cattle and horses are in prime condition and are still feeding out on the grass and peavine of the prairie.

We are glad to report that the condition of J. Stillek who has typhoid fever in the general hospital at Edmonton is very much improved and his speedy recovery and return to Lac Ste. Anne is hoped for by his many friends.

The fishermen of White Lake Lake suspended operations during the recent cold spell but resumed the work when the weather moderated, and they are again meeting with their usual success.

Frank Wright who was successful in bagging a high class silver fox skin, was taken ill last week and is now under treatment in Edmonton. His disease is erysipelas.

Deputy Constable Armiton has been deputed to take supplies to Mr. Wright's partner on the Lakeland. While crossing a small lake, Mr. Armiton was attacked by wolves, but succeeded in escaping.

This point ought to have telephone connections with Edmonton, a bi-weekly mail, a permanent blacksmith and a bakery to supply the local demand for bread as well as that of the great stream of travellers who are constantly going westward. These wants it is believed will be supplied in a short time.

The advantages which high prices for furs, fish, freighting (particularly with pack trains) and guiding west-bound travellers in search of minerals, timber, mountain passes, and adventure, makes the average earning capacity of many of the residents very satisfactory.

P. Gray was convicted of selling liquor to Indians and sentenced to both a fine and imprisonment.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Letendre have returned from a short visit to Edmonton.

A. C. and Miss Patterson of White Lake Lake; Cecil and Mrs. Armstrong, John Hornby, J. O. Williamson and W. Yates of Onaway were guests of the hotel last week.

I know of no business that requires so much close personal attention as cigar-making. The slightest variation in the grade of the tobacco, the least negligence in the maturing of the leaf, or careless in the making of the cigar, will be noticeable in the smoke.

It is for this reason I give such particular and personal attention to every step in the production of my Pharaoh cigar.

I have produced an excellent smoke, and all my time, energy and knowledge is devoted to keeping it at that high standard. The quality of my

is more to me than several years' profits.

I might make a little more money, and make it a little more quickly by using a poorer grade of tobacco, less experienced workmanship, or any of the many cheapening methods known to the cigar trade. But I wouldn't do it. The quality of my Pharaoh cigar is a matter of pride with me. I want it to be known as the cigar that is always good.

TARIFF DEBATE.

A large number were present at the meeting of the Men's Institute of the Methodist church last evening, when a debate, "Resolved (that) the principle of Free Trade in the commercial relations between the United States and Canada would be to the interests of Canada," was the subject for discussion. For free trade the speaker was Mr. Brown, and for protection Mr. Griesbach. Mr. Brown spoke, Mr. Brown stated his reasons for being a free trader and said it was not possible to tax a nation into prosperity. The principle of free trade was an unworkable one, while protection enriched one at the expense of many. Free trade worked the greatest good for the greatest number, protection enriched the rich and made the poor poorer.
Free trade had no special favors, while protection created monopolies, combines, and trusts, of which there were a good many in the United States. Free trade offered no opportunities for political corruption.
Protection prevented the promotion of peace among men. Mr. Griesbach said that a tariff was based on business principles and on self-interest.
Trusts and combines were due to corruption. Mr. Brown had not referred to free trade in connection with the relations between the United States and Canada, which was the real question at issue. Mr. Griesbach quoted from John Stuart Mill, who said that protection was only advantage for countries in the early stages of development, where the industries were not fully established.
This speaker said that this was the condition at the present time, and that consequently protection was what was needed. The decision was given in favor of Mr. Griesbach.

HOCKEY

EDMONTON INTERMEDIATES WON
To the tune of 6-3, the Edmonton Intermediates again defeated the Calgary Thistles last evening, and are now in possession of the handsome set of medals presented by Frank Goode and Len Goodridge.

A small, but very enthusiastic crowd was present and had the weather guaranteed better ice the number would have been considerably larger.
But those who did turn out did not suffer for lack of an interesting game.
There was not a slow moment during the whole hour. It was hockey all the way from the draw to the finish, and the crowd was treated to scientific exhibitions of the national game, such as they had not seen in a good many years. Both teams displayed good team play. The little Thistles played combination to a finish, and for the last half had things just about all their own way. The Calgary bunch have the weight all right, but when they come up against an aggregation of sleek little rushers like the Edmonton bunch it is just about all up with them.

At ten minutes after eight Referee Rouleau, of Calgary set the rubber going, and for the first five minutes both teams got in some great work.

Holly and McHugh did the star playing for the visitors. They came down the ice and got in some swift ones.
The Thistle forwards got away with it once and Campbell sent it to the net with a neat shot. Another rush by Gauvreau and Clark and Banford, and the rubber went through again. The Calgary rushers put in a minute or two of quick play and got past the flag man with a good shot.

The Calgary boys lagged a little in the second half, but they still continued to dodge around and do some pretty work. In four minutes from the face-off their forwards found the net again.

The next score came in quick time.
Banford taking the rubber up all by himself, and before the other fellows had a look at it, the puck was in the net. Campbell got in another in three minutes. They by a serious of neat little plays the rubber was sent in by the Calgary boys. One more was notched up by Gauvreau and another by Banford, which finished the scoring, and at time the tally stood 6-3 for the home players.

At the Pendennis after the match the Calgary boys were entertained by Manager Corbett and his team, and full justice was done to an excellent supper furnished by Messrs. Finch and Morton. The southern lads left this morning and will play in Red Deer tonight.

SOCIAL MONDAY EVENING

—One of the most enjoyable socials ever held in the city was given Monday night by the Baptist Young People's Union. The social was held in the basement of the new church, which has just been completed, and was held for the first time.
There were about 150 of the young people present. G. A. Nixon, president of the society, presided. A pleasant hour was spent by those present in becoming acquainted, and for this purpose cards were distributed and the young people were given ten minutes to secure as many names as possible on these cards. After this an interesting auction sale was held. During the evening the topic cards of the society for the next six months were distributed. Refreshments were served by the young ladies, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present.
The new basement which was opened last night is most complete in every particular. It will be used as a substant school room, and in dimensions is 90 feet by 40 feet. There are also a library, kitchen and dressing rooms adjacent to the main school room.
